WHEREAS, Our present way of life relies heavily on a large use of nonrenewable energy; and,

WHEREAS, The State of South Dakota imports approximately 95 percent of its energy, including natural gas, oil and coal; and,

WHEREAS, The conservation of energy can have a substantial impact on both the State's ability to meet future energy needs and on the stability of social, political and economic institutions around the world; and,

WHEREAS, The price of this precious energy keeps rising; and,

WHEREAS, Conservation of energy can help keep the cost of energy down:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the month of October, 1979, as in South Dakota in order to promote the conservation of energy as a vital, important issue. During this month I urge all South Dakotans to focus their attention on energy conservation through actions and deeds and ask that the resources available to State Government be utilized to educate the public by developing an awareness of energy conservation within our State.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-sixth Day of September, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-nine

WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, GOVERNOR
